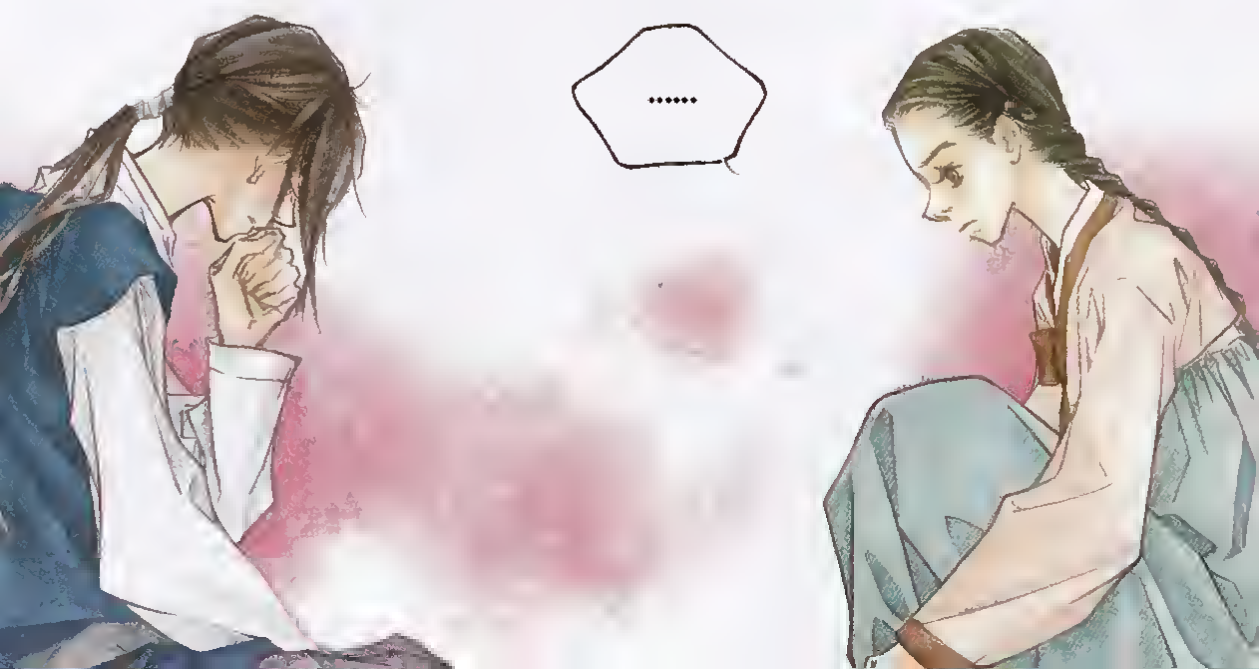
Red Chrysanthemum

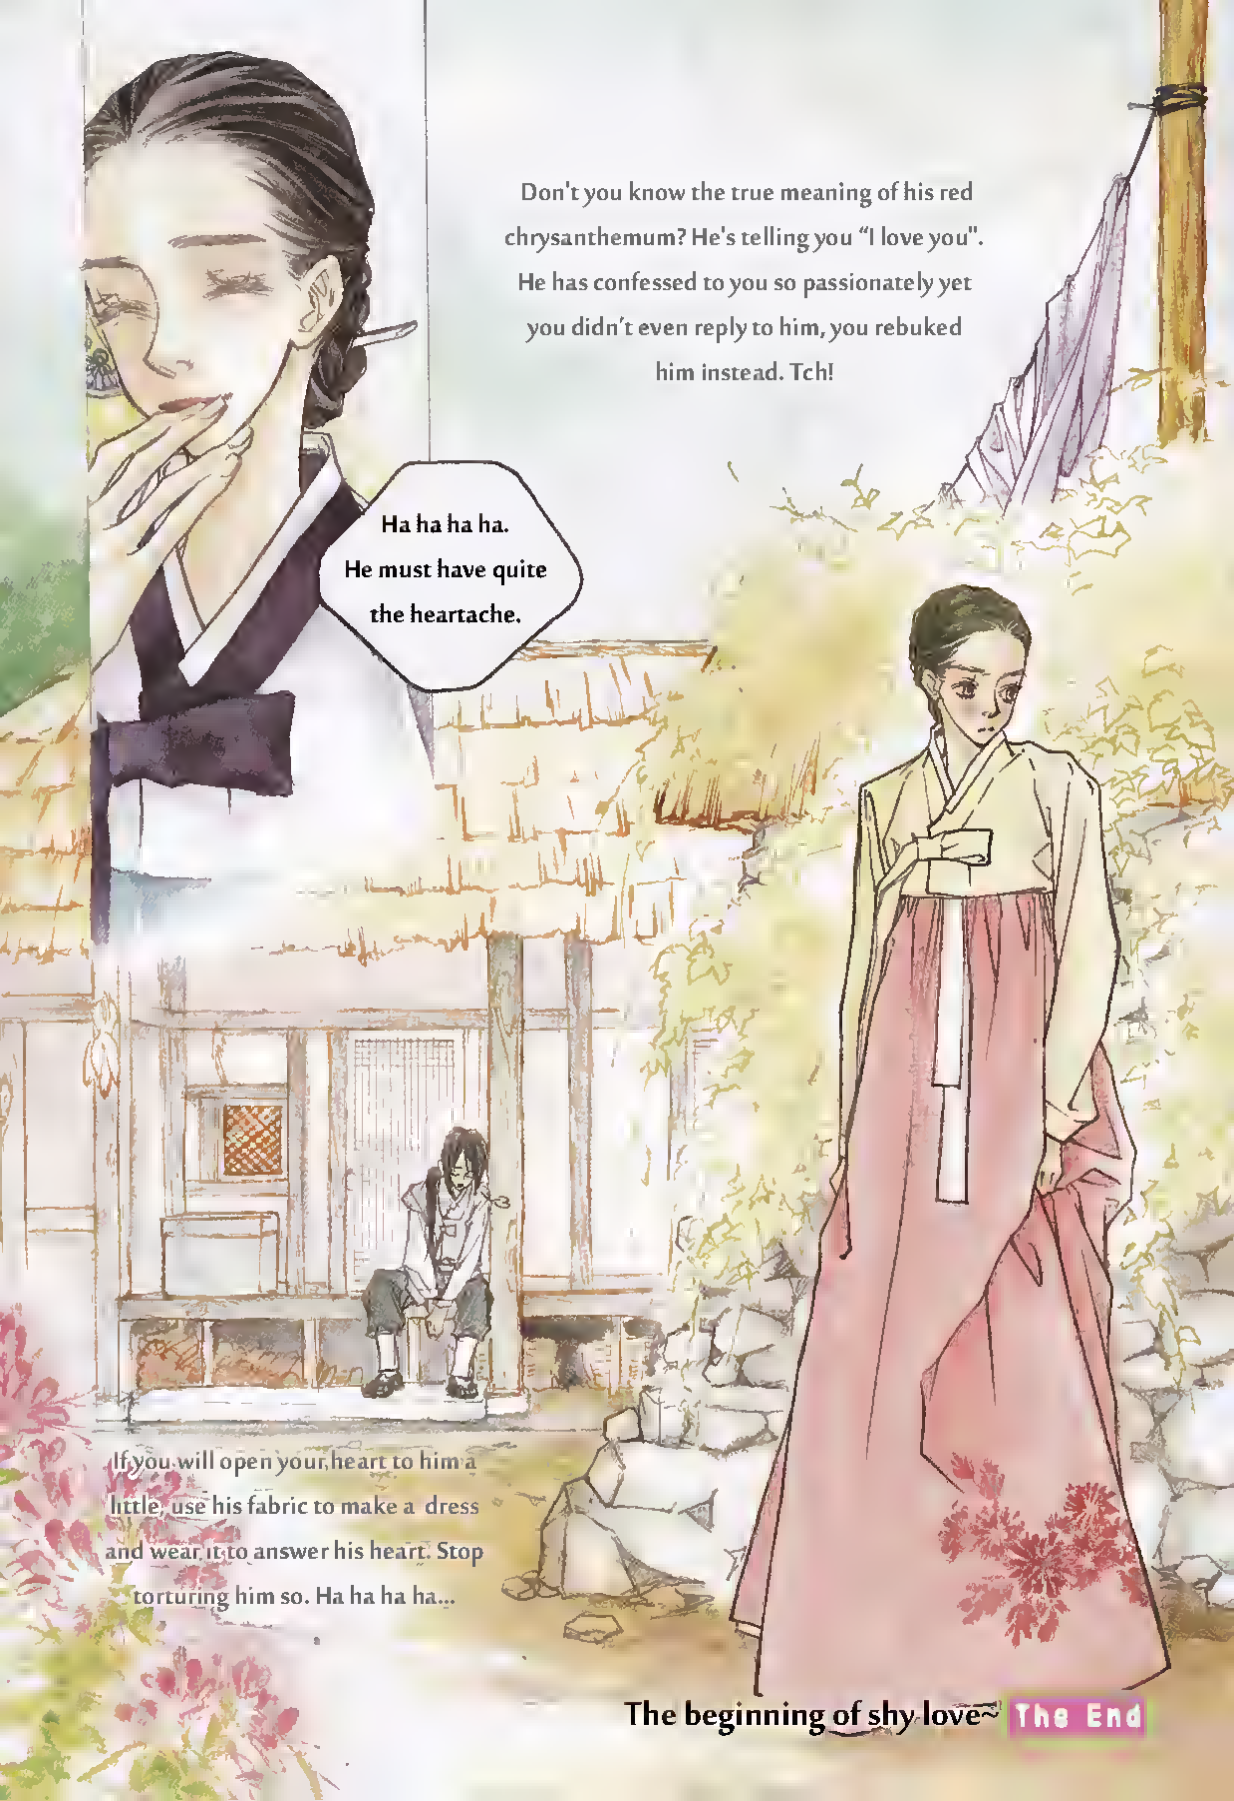
Jung Hyun Um

This is the fabric which your lady ordered.
And this is... something I am giving to you...



.....

You're being stupid. Are you really asking me because you don't know?
What do you mean?
Even if this fabric is flawed, I feel uncomfortable accepting such things for free. Please do not offer them again.
Look at this. Even if it's free, it's still rather insulting...
It's always low quality fabric with this same flower design.



Don't you know the true meaning of his red chrysanthemum? He's telling you "I love you". He has confessed to you so passionately yet you didn't even reply to him, you rebuked him instead. Tch!
Ha ha ha ha. He must have quite the heartache.
If you will open your heart to him a little, use his fabric to make a dress and wear it to answer his heart. Stop torturing him so. Ha ha ha ha...
